What's going on this week?

The World Health Organisation (WHO) have partnered with technology companies around the world campaigning to show how gaming can help fight coronavirus and 'save lives'. The WHO and computer game producers have come together to work on the #PlayApartTogether campaign, which aims to spread the importance of WHO guidelines, that will slow the spread of COVID-19, including staying inside, to the global audience of the gaming industry.

Things to talk about at home...

- 👾 Have you ever played on a video or computer game? If so, what was it? Did you enjoy it? If not, would you like to play on one?
- 👾 Why do you think video games are as popular as they are?
- 👾 Do you prefer video games, or real-life games? Talk about why.
