What's going on this week?

Plans to dig a road tunnel, near the ancient monument site of Stonehenge in Salisbury, have been approved by the Transport Secretary, Grant Shapps. A two-mile tunnel out of sight of the monument will be built even though it went against the recommendations of planning officials. It is estimated that the tunnel will cost £1.7 billion to create.

Things to talk about at home...

- 👤 Look at the poster showing Stonehenge. What do you think of the World Heritage Site? Would you like to visit? If you have been, what was it like?
- 👤 Do you think the underground tunnel to replace the road sounds like a good idea?
- 👤 Are there any ancient monuments near to where you live? Have you visited them before?
